1 Purpose and guiding principles

The lunch programme as well as the school-based supplementary childcare complement the school's core teaching hours. In addition, individual holiday care may be booked if required.

Within the framework of the school-based supplementary childcare, various care modules are available, including afternoon care as well as before-school and after-school care.

2 Sponsorship

The lunch table and after-school care is run by easy-kid-care GmbH.

5 Nutrition

We provide children and adolescents with a balanced, varied and healthy diet. Meals are freshly prepared on a daily basis. Water and tea are provided as beverages.

6 Conditions of acceptance/ minimum required attendance

The lunch table/after-school care can be attended by children/young people from kindergarten age to senior school. The children must attend the lunch table at least once a week.

7 Registration

Binding registration is made by completing and signing the registration form and can be submitted at any time, regardless of the school year in progress.

8 Registration fee

A one-off registration fee of CHF 50 per family is charged for admission.

9 Additional participation

If capacity is available, flexible additional visits to the lunch table can be booked. Registration by 8:00 a.m. in the morning.

10 Flexible participation

For irregular use of the offer, there is the option of buying a 10-pack subscription and using it flexibly. The subscription is non-transferable and valid for one school year.

Registration by telephone by 8:00 am.

11 Payment method and terms of payment

Lunch only:

The fees for the lunch programme are payable monthly in advance, no later than the 28th day of the preceding month.

Any additional lunch bookings will be invoiced in the following month.

After-school care:

After-school care is charged as an average monthly flat rate. This is based on 21.75 care days per month and is invoiced 12 times per year. Payment is due monthly in advance, no later than the 28th day of the preceding month.

Any additional care sessions booked will be invoiced in the following month.

A late payment fee of CHF 50.– will be charged for overdue payments.

12 Illness / holidays / no-show

In the event of infectious illness (e.g. fever, diarrhea/vomiting, etc.), the child may not attend lunch. Absences must be reported by 9:00 am.

No reduction can be granted in the event of illness/non-attendance. The days cannot be compensated.

If a public holiday falls on a childcare day, this cannot be refunded.

If a child does not appear at the lunch table, the caregiver is obliged to inform the child's contact person(s) by telephone. If these contact persons cannot be reached, the childminder is not obliged to take any further action.

13 Termination/reduction

The mutual notice period for the lunch programme and after-school care is three months, effective at the end of a calendar month. This notice period also applies to any reduction in the number of care days..

14 Expulsion

A child may be excluded at any time by the Centre Management in consultation with the Executive Management, for example in the event of outstanding payments, breach of contract, or unacceptable behaviour of the child within the group. The decision will be communicated to the parents or legal guardians in writing.

Duty of care

Care must be taken of the facilities.

Children/young people must adhere to the instructions of the supervisors.

15 Duty of Care

The facilities must be treated with due care.

Children and adolescents are required to follow the instructions of the caregivers

16 Insurance

By registering, the parents or legal guardians confirm that their child is covered by accident insurance and that valid personal liability insurance is in place.

No liability is accepted for the loss of or damage to the children's personal belongings; responsibility lies with the children themselves. Any liability for the route between school and the lunch programme is expressly excluded.

Parents or legal guardians are liable for any damage caused by children or adolescents. Wilful damage will be charged to the parents.

17 Various

Changes of telephone number or address must be communicated to the lunch coordinator immediately.
